STAFF FAVOURITES

We've selected a handful of wines that are a little more unusual, boutique or just plain delicious, perfect for those looking for a vinous discovery!

2024 Kerner

'Puntscheit', Cantina Bolzano

Alto Adige

71

A few of our team first tasted this on a sunny yet snow-covered terrace in the Dolomites and immediately petitioned the importer to begin shipping this energetic, mineral and mountain-crisp expression of this local grape variety, Kerner. They agreed to ship a small amount just for us, so you're unlikely to find it elsewhere in the UK. Perfect with crunchy spring flavours or for sipping on the terrace.

2024 Zibibbo

'Pietranera', Marco De Bartoli

Sicilia

99

The aromas in this wine of orange blossom, apricot and sweet spice are exotic and enticing while the palate has a fresh, volcanic edge. Zibibbo is the local name for Muscat d'Alexandria and this grape has adapted to the challenging growing conditions on the 'black stone' of the Sicilian archipelago. It keeps you guessing as you sip each glass and is wildly fun when paired with seafood.

NV Soave Classico

'Calvarino 5', Pieropan

Veneto

175

The Calvarino single vineyard sealed its place in history as the first ever bottling using white grapes in Italy. The newest project involving this iconic site is a blend of 5 vintages, each with a minimum of 10 years of ageing in the cellar. The result is a nutty, savoury, complex and rounded expression of the heart of Soave Classico, with the ever-present stony minerality providing the tightrope upon which the flavours dance. Meditative joy in a bottle.

White Wines from Southern Italy and Islands

Local grape varieties thrive in a wide range of soils across this varied region. The magical islands of Sicily and Sardinia produce wines with unique character, balancing exotic fruit with sea influence. Planting at altitude allows for the more aromatic grape varieties to slowly develop whilst harnessing their refreshing acidity.

STAFF FAVOURITES

We've selected a handful of wines that are a little more unusual, boutique or just plain delicious, perfect for those looking for a vinous discovery!

2024 Syrah, Sant'Antimo

'Fabivs', Ciacci Piccolomini d'Aragona

Toscana

72

The Northern Rhône Valley meets a historic Montalcino power-house. The international varietal project at Ciacci (under the Sant'Antimo D.O.C.) is approached with the same care and consideration as a single-vineyard Brunello. Tuscan rusticity is gently polished and moulded in French barriques and they offer a touch of smoke and mix of sweet spices to the rich dark fruit flavours.

2023 Valpolicella Ripasso Classico Superiore

Speri

Veneto

90

Power meets drinkability – put simply, it's a baby Amarone. Concentrated and complex, with a mix of dried and ripe red stone fruits. This is contrasted by a hint of spice and earthiness, all framed in perfect harmonious balance on the palate. All the richness is balanced with freshness, and this is how great Ripasso are judged.

2020 Barolo

Fracassi, 'Mantoetto'

Piemonte

116

A gloriously elegant expression of Nebbiolo in its most famous home. Locals regard this variety as 'Italy's Pinot Noir' and in some cases that can feel wildy off base with the wines feeling like a punchy powerhouse that could only be approached with food. Here though, we have something akin to Pinot, just with a bit of an attitude! You'll find delicate red fruits overlaying subtle earth and herbal complexity. The tannins are integrated and supple, balanced with crunchy freshness borne of the cool air descending from the Alps. Delicious.
